901 LOCKS

BY YVONNE BOBO

901 Locks by Yvonne Bobo is in the alley between Fleet Feet and Sweet Noshings at Overton Square and was created in 2019.

The mural consists of a red heart with white beams and a stainless steel sculpture, created by Bobo, where one can hook their lock on.

Yvonne Bobo is based out of Memphis, TN and specializes in large metal sculptures.

The 901 Locks mural and sculpture symbolizes the lasting love one has for their partner. It is meant to honor your loved one by hooking your lock and throwing out the key.

Love locks are a popular symbol around the world that show unbreakable love.

OVERTON SQUARE

OVERTON SQUARE MURAL BY DAVID LYNCH

The Overton Square Mural was created by David Lynch in 2013. It is painted on the side of the old Bari Ristorante's wall and adjacent to Lenny's.

Lynch used a combination of folk art styles and contemporary cityscape that changes the wall to a city.
